

Allen Bridgers

Vice President of Business Development

McCrory Construction
Greenville, SC

Allen Bridgers is responsible for sales and marketing at McCrory Construction, a full-service general contractor known for its leadership in key market sectors throughout the Southeast — primarily retail, commercial, healthcare, multi-family and industrial construction. After a century of unwavering commitment to customer focus, McCrory maintains an exceptionally high level of repeat business — at more than 90 percent.

Central to his role is developing core client relationships in strategic Markets --a key part of the company's business development strategy. Over the last decade, McCrory has significantly increased its already impressive list of private and public-sector clients, many with ongoing building programs. During this period of unprecedented growth, McCrory has expanded its services, market sectors and geographic presence. Headquartered in Columbia, McCrory now is licensed in 13 states and has full-service regional offices in Greenville, South Carolina, and Raleigh, North Carolina.

Bridgers came to McCrory in 2007 after six years in manufacturing operations with Nestlé USA, the world's leading nutrition, health and wellness company. As he began his professional career, Bridgers honed his leadership and team-building skills at Nestlé's frozen entree plant in Gaffney, South Carolina. Established over 35 years ago, this flagship-brand facility continues to be one of Nestlé USA's key operations.

Bridgers earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Economics from Wofford College in 2001. He is a graduate of Leadership South Carolina's Class of 2015, as well as Leadership Columbia's Class of 2010. He is active in the Leadership Columbia Alumni Association as a current board member and past Chair. Bridgers is also Regional Vice Chair of ULI SC and sits on the board of the Carolina Children's Home in Columbia. Bridgers lives in downtown Columbia with his wife and three children.
