

Robert L. Morgan

Senior Director, Development

Greystar Real Estate Partners
Charleston, SC

Robert Morgan is a senior director of development for Greystar Development and Construction Services; he oversees development in the company's Southeast region, with a focus on the Carolinas. Since joining Greystar in 2012, he has also handled asset management for the company's investment and development groups. Active in the multifamily industry since 2004, Robert has also served as a vice president of development for Carlisle Development Group and as a managing director for Trammell Crow Residential (TCR). He holds a Master of Science degree in real estate development and a master's degree in architecture from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), and a bachelor of science degree from Clemson University. He currently serves as vice president/president-elect of the Clemson Architectural Foundation (CAF) and is chair of the Governance Committee for the Urban Land Institute (ULI) South Carolina District Council; he is also a member of the ULI Multifamily Product Council Blue Flight.